Nebraska the Scene of the Latest Big Twister.

A Large Number of Persons Reported to Have Been Killed and Injured.

Hall as Large as Hen's Eggs Fell—Reserve, a Town of 300 People, Literally Wiped Off the Face of the Earth—Four Persons Are Killed.

FALLS CITY, Neb., May 19.—A cyclone visited this section about nine o'clock Sunday night and swept everything in its path, killing a number of people and leaving dozens seriously injured. It touched the extreme southern portion of this place, tearing the canning factory, unroofing both the Missouri Pacific and Burlington depots and turned over 30 freight cars, in one of which was a tramp, who was seriously hurt. Hinton's park, which Sunday was one of the most picturesque spots in the country, is now but a mass of unrooted and broken trees, while not a single building is left standing. Brockman's brewery, which was located across the Nemaha river from the park, is a total wreck. Wm. Hinton's house was torn to atoms and both Mr. and Mrs. Hinton were badly hurt. The house of L. Knickerbocker, near the park entrance, is all but ruined.

Hall fell as large as hen eggs, doing great damage to property and breaking nearly every window in the city.

The storm seems to have followed the river for a distance of a mile and then took a southerly course. Between this city and the Kansas line, a distance of four miles, there were eight houses blown down. Those known to be dead are Mrs. Dan Saylor, Miss Schepke, and an eight-year-old boy named Holck. Mrs. Wm. Brannin, Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes are among the injured and can not recover.

Reserve, a town of 300 people, seven miles southeast of here, was literally wiped off the earth. But three buildings are standing and they were moved from their foundations. Four people were killed and 20 wounded, 12 severely.

The schoolhouse was one of the more fortunate buildings has been converted into a hospital, and the injured are being cared for by physicians from surrounding towns.

The dead:—Tehune, head crushed. Mrs. Rydner, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. Phillip. Ralph Sweeney.

The injured are: Rev. Parker, wife and daughter, internal injuries; will recover. Mrs. Tehune, back broken; will die. Her daughter, badly crushed and otherwise injured; will recover. Mr. Rydner, skull crushed; will die;

Baby Rydner, legs broken; will die; George Sweeney; head hurt. A man named Jones, jaw broken. Wm. Wilson, internal injuries; will recover. George and Frank Phillips, hurt about the head.

It is impossible to give an estimate of the damage done in the vicinity of Falls City. Reports come in ever hour which add to the number of farm houses and buildings destroyed. The growing crops was pounded into the earth and will have to be re-planted. The damage to fruit trees is very heavy.

HUMBOLDT, Neb., May 19.—Meager reports have been received here of terrible loss of life by a cyclone on the Pawnee reservation. It is said that 40 persons have been killed and that later information is expected to swell the list of dead.

THE CORONATION.

Distinguished Persons From All Parts of the Globe Gathering at Moscow.

MOSCOW, May 19.—Distinguished persons from all parts of the world are arriving here hourly to witness the coronation of the czar. Li Hung Chang, the representative of the emperor of China, with a large and brilliant suite, arrived here Monday and was received at the station with great enthusiasm. Among other arrivals are Field Marshal Yamagata, representing the emperor of Japan; the crown prince of Roumania, and the duke and duchess of Nagaera, the duke representing the queen regent and king of Spain. All were received with honors, the crown prince of Roumania being received at the station with military honors.

The chief event Monday was the arrival of the emperor and empress and court from St. Petersburg.

The emperor looked well and the empress appeared to be in fine health. Her majesty was dressed in white and the emperor wore the colonel's uniform of the Probajensky regiment.

Destructive Blaze at Nahant, Mass.

LYNN, Mass., May 19.—The residence portion of the town of Nahant was Monday afternoon the scene of a disastrous fire which destroyed five valuable summer residences, causing a property loss approximating $100,000. Among those destroyed was the Longfellow cottage where the poet spent his summers for many years and where the "Bells of Lynn" was composed and written.

Fortifications Bill Reported.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The fortifications bill was reported to the senate Monday afternoon by Mr. Perkins. The estimates for 1897 amounted to $8,045,165. The house bill carried $5,845,837, to which the senate added $4,918,051, making the total reported to the senate $10,763,888. The appropriation for the current fiscal year is only $1,004,557.

NEW BISHOPS.

The Stubborn Deadlock Broken in the General Conference.

Rev. C. C. McCabe and Rev. Earl Cranston Elevated to the Bishopric.

The Result Was Sought to Be Achieved by Dropping All But the Leading Candidates, But There Was a Storm of No!—Sketch of the Two Men.

CLEVELAND, O., May 19.—Bishop Bowman, the venerable senior bishop of the Methodist church, presided over the general conference probably for the last time Tuesday morning.

Rev. Charles L. Stafford, of Iowa, put the conference in a great uproar by moving that the election of bishops be indefinitely postponed.

Rev. Hill said: "The world is looking at us this morning. I move as a substitute for the motion that, commencing with the 14th ballot, we commence to drop men for whom few are voting until there is an election."

"Cries of 'No! No!' and much confusion. Bishop Bowman ruled the substitute out of order.

The conference decided, amid much confusion and noise, not to suspend the rules. The motion to postpone the election of bishops indefinitely was defeated.

On the sixteenth ballot Rev. C. C. McCabe was elected a bishop, as follows: Necessary to a choice, 336; C. C. McCabe, 344; Earl Cranston, 328; H. A. Butt, 113; J. W. Hamilton, 109; T. P. Neeley, 50; J. W. E. Bowen, 30.

BISHOP C. C. McCABE.

Chaplain McCabe was invited to the platform, where he received the congratulations of his brother bishops. He declined to sing or speak.

Chaplain McCabe is 58 years of age. He is of Methodist parents. He has a brother who is a professor in the Ohio Wesleyan college at Delaware. He was taken prisoner during the war and was for a long time confined in Libby prison. He inherited some money, and by wise investments his wealth rapidly grew. Much of it has been spent in advancing the cause of Methodism. He has now about fifty thousand dollars. Many Methodist institutions have been backed financially by him. He is now engaged in raising money for the great American university, to be erected at Washington, and as bishop he will continue this work. He is considered the greatest money raiser in the Methodist church. His place as senior secretary of the missionary society will be extremely hard to fill. He is the man who first raised the cry: "A million for missions." He raised the mission collection from $700,000 to $1,250,000.

Earl Cranston was elected bishop on the seventeenth ballot. The vote was: Necessary to a choice, 336; Earl Cranston, 360; H. A. Butt, 82; J. W. Hamilton, 36; T. B. Neeley, 10; scattering, 10.

BISHOP EARL CRANSTON.

Dr. Earl Cranston, was born in Scioto county, O., about 60 years ago. His education was obtained at the Ohio university at Athens, O. He was a fellow student with Rev. Dr. David H. Moore, now editor of the Western Christian Advocate of Cincinnati. He became, after leaving college, a traveling minister of the Methodist Episcopal church and served in that capacity until the breaking out of the war. He enlisted in the United States service and rose to the rank of captain of the Sixtieth Ohio Volunteer infantry. In consequence of that service he is now an honored member of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States in the Ohio commandery. His service in the church after the war was in Ohio conferences until he was transferred, about 1880, to the Colorado conference, where he became a presiding elder. In 1884, upon the election of Bishop Walden, Cranston was chosen to succeed Walden as one of the book agents of the Western Methodist Book Concern, of Cincinnati. He has held that position until now.

CHARLES LOUIS.

Arch-Duke of Austria, and Brother of Emperor Francis Joseph, Dead.

VIENNA, May 19.—Arch-Duke Charles Louis, of Austria, brother of Emperor Francis Joseph, died Tuesday morning. Dispatches from Buda Pesth say that the announcement of his death has created a feeling of sorrow throughout Hungary, where the arch-duke was very popular, and casts a shade of sadness over the celebration of Hungary's millennium. The principal celebration, which was to take place on June 8, has been postponed, and a period of mourning has been officially ordered. Arch-Duke Charles Louis was born July 30, 1853.

Arch-Duke Otto Francis Joseph, is now regarded as the heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne, his elder brother Arch-Duke Francis Ferdinand, who became heir to the throne after the suicide of Arch-Duke Rudolph, the prince imperial, in January, 1889, and the abdication of his father, who is incurably ill, and consequently incapacitated from succeeding to the throne.

RAILWAY WRECK.

One Man Killed and Five More or Less Seriously Injured on the Lake Shore Road.

TOLEDO, O., May 19.—At Air Line Junction Tuesday morning, as fast freight No. 63 on the Lake Shore was pulling out, the air hose broke, setting the front brakes. An empty stock car in the middle of the train was crushed like a paper box, and of seven men who were riding in it, one was killed and five more or less severely injured. The dead, Edwards Havens, of Washington, Ga.

Injured: Henry A. Woods, Evansville, Ind., right hand crushed and head cut; Fred Williams, No. 5, Rosewood avenue, Cleveland, right ankle crushed; Frank Fabian, Aurora, Ind., leg crushed; John Merritt, Boston, left foot crushed; Wm. St. Clair, Washington, D. C., left foot crushed; John F. Conway, Utica, N. Y., right foot injured and badly bruised. The seventh man escaped injury.

MINE ON FIRE.

Eleven Entombed Miners Were Rescued—Buildings Over the Shaft Destroyed.

RICHMOND, Va., May 19.—The Midlothian coal mine, 25 miles from this city, took fire Monday night. There were 11 miners in the mine shaft, which is 600 feet deep, when the fire broke out, and fears were at first entertained that all of them would be lost. A cable was, however, sent up from Richmond and the entombed miners were rescued unhurt at an early hour Tuesday morning, amid scenes of much excitement. Their escape was the more remarkable as all the buildings over the shaft were completely destroyed. An official has just arrived here from the mines and confirms the news of the rescue.

Portions of Missouri Flooded. ST. LOUIS, May 19.—During the past 20 hours Missouri has been visited with the heaviest downpour of continuous rain known in many years. A waterspout struck Bosworth, Mo., Monday evening. Rain descended in torrents for an hour and a half. The streets of the prairie town were flooded. Out in the country farms were inundated and on Big Creek bottom fences were several feet under water. The country for miles was one sheet of water, but the people sought higher grounds and no loss of life is reported.

In Favor of Free Silver. RICHMOND, Va., May 19.—The Dispatch printed Tuesday morning special reports meeting to elect delegates to the state democratic conventions that were held in Goodland, Southampton, Dinwiddie, Mecklenburg, Lee, Roanoke and Fairfax counties. All passed silver resolutions except Fairfax, where the silver men were voted down. Manchester and Neapolis also favor free silver. The feeling against the unit rule seems to be increasing.

An Attorney Mysteriously Missing. PHILADELPHIA, May 19.—The Evening Telegraph Monday stated that Thomas M. Carly, an attorney who had offices in the Girard building, has mysteriously disappeared, leaving a large number of creditors. Several warrants have been sworn out by the victims for his arrest. It is stated that unsecured claims amount to $50,000.

Commissioner of Pensions. WASHINGTON, May 19.—The senate committee on pensions Tuesday ordered a favorable report made on the nomination of Dominick I. Murphy, of Pennsylvania, to be commissioner of pensions, and Napoleon J. T. Dana, of New Hampshire, to be first deputy commissioner of pensions.

Denied Mail Privileges. WASHINGTON, May 19.—Postmaster General Wilson Tuesday denied the privileges of the mails to the following concerns for violating the postal regulations: Charles Heller and A. C. Silbury, of Mt. Pulaski, Ill., and Lewis L. Verner, jr., of Louisville, O.

Death Before Arrest. STUART, Neb., May 19.—John Carberry, accused of complicity in the Fanton cattle stealing case, killed himself by shooting just as the sheriff arrived to place him under arrest. Carberry's son is a fugitive, having been convicted and out on bonds.

Congressman Catchings Renominated. GREENVILLE, Miss., May 19.—Congressman T. C. Catchings was renominated by the Third congressional democratic convention held here Monday by acclamation.

Ex-Minister of Finance Dead. BERLIN, May 19.—Herr Otto Camphausen, from 1869 to 1873 Prussian minister of finance, died in this city Sunday night.

GASOLINE EXPLODES.

A Woman and Her Two-Year-Old Baby Fatally Burned.

COLUMBUS, O., May 19.—Mrs. Anna Rohrerbeck and her two-year-old baby were fatally burned Tuesday morning by a gasoline explosion. Her husband is a pressman and had gone to his work when, with her child in her arms, Mrs. Rohrerbeck attempted to pour some coal oil, as she thought, on the kitchen fire. By mistake she picked up the gasoline can. Instantly the can exploded and mother and child were enveloped in flames. Their clothing was entirely burned off, and their bodies burned to a crisp before neighbors came to their rescue. Physicians pronounce the case hopeless. The house caught fire but the fire department saved it.

Mrs. Rohrerbeck, who was burned in the explosion of gasoline Tuesday morning, died at noon. Her baby died an hour later.

IN A RECEIVER'S HANDS.

The A. G. Patton Manufacturing Co., With Offices in Columbus, Asks Bankruptcy.

COLUMBUS, O., May 19.—The A. G. Patton Manufacturing Co., with offices here, and plants in Jeffersonville and Muncie, Ind., has gone into the hands of W. E. Joseph, of this city, as receiver. The action was voluntary, but A. G. Patton, the principal owner, has been financially embarrassed for some time. He was engaged in manufacturing with convict labor, and was the largest employer of convicts at the Ohio prison, and the first blow suffered by him was through legislation requiring prison-made goods to be branded. The assets are rated at $75,000, and the liabilities fully equal that sum.

DAVID R. PAIGE.

The Alleged Forger Would Like to Return to His Home.

WARREN, O., May 19.—The $15,000 claim of the First national bank of Warren against Paige, Carey & Co., which formed a part of the paper said to bear the forged signature of John Huntington, was settled Monday, and terms have been proposed to two other banks, the Western Reserve and Canfield, which have smaller claims. It is believed that the paper will soon be all collected, and David R. Paige will be free to return from South America.

Free Coinage of Silver.

COLUMBUS, O., May 13.—The democratic convention of the Seventh congressional district, held at Springfield Tuesday, adopted without a dissenting vote a resolution instructing the delegates sent to Chicago representing the district to vote for the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, without regard to the action of any other nation. James Johnson, of Clark county, was nominated for congress, and Geo. Inskip, of Fayette, was chosen for presidential elector.

Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F.

LIMA, O., May 19.—The Grand lodge of Ohio, I. O. O. F., met here in annual session Tuesday morning in Allen lodge rooms. The address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Baxter. The afternoon was a secret session and the lodge work was distributed to the different committees. The grand officers and representatives are all present. The session will last four days.

Dug Out of Jail.

PORTSMOUTH, O., May 19.—W. E. Carr, arrested and locked up in the city prison Saturday, charged with embezzling $900, the funds of Carr and Ball, contractors, dug his way through the wall of the station house and escaped early Monday morning. Carr lives at Mayaville and was thought to have been a victim of the gasoline explosion at Cincinnati.

He Hunted for Trouble.

COLUMBUS, O., May 19.—John Berger, of No. 539 West Town street, while drunk Monday, quarreled with his wife and shot at her three times. She escaped injury, however, and later in the day Berger drew his revolver upon Mrs. Eliza Alburn, keeper of a lodging house at No. 175 South Front street. He was arrested in time to prevent a tragedy.

Lighting at Bellefontaine.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., May 19.—During a violent electric storm Monday lightning struck the courthouse and opera house. A number of persons were badly shocked.

Oil Goes Down.

LIMA, O., May 19.—The price of Lima crude oil was again reduced Monday by the Standard Co. three cents per barrel, making North Lima 65 cents per barrel.
